BOURBON FISCAL COURT ORDER.

It is ordered that an election be held at the several voting precincts of Bourbon county, at the next regular November election, 1897, to take the sense of the legal voters of said county shall issue bonds not exceeding the sum of $50,000 for the purchase and maintenance of the turnpike roads in said county free of toll to the traveling public. It is therefore ordered that a poll be opened in each of said voting precincts in said county and the Sheriff of said county is hereby directed to advertise said election and the object thereof for at least thirty days next before the day thereof in some newspaper having the largest circulation in the county and also by printed hand bills posted up at not less than four public places in each voting precinct in the county and at the Court House door.

ED. D. PATON, C. B. C. C.

By virtue of the above order I will at the next regular November election, 1897, open a poll at each of the voting places in Bourbon county to take the sense of the legal voters of said county as to whether they will issue bonds not exceeding the sum of $50,000, for the purchase and maintenance of the turnpike roads in said county free of toll to the traveling public.

GOSSIPY PARAGRAPHS.

Theatrical And Otherwise—Remarks In The Foyer.

Georgetown amateurs will produce the play "A Box of Monkeys", to-night.

The Czar has made nobles of Jean and Edouard De Reszke, the opera singers.

Edward Langtry, husband of Lilly Langtry, the actress, died Saturday in an asylum in London.

Miss Harriett Wellington Glascock gave a Grecian entertainment last night in the Owenton court house.

"Hogan's Alley," one of the liveliest of farce comedies, will be seen at the opera house on Wednesday evening, the 27th.

Kisses taken without the consent of the fair lady are quoted at $8.40 each by a New Albany (Ind.) court. There will be plenty of unbidden kisses in New Albany in future.

Creston Clarke plays at Macanley's in Louisville this week, appearing in "The Last of His Race," "The Lady of Lyons" and "David Garrick." He made a pronounced hit in Lexington Friday night.

Three persons were killed and over a score injured in Robinson's opera-house, Cincinnati, during the performance of "Dangers of a Great City" Friday night.

The great central truss of the ceiling crashed down among the audience, and it is a miracle that many more were not killed.

Of the many taken to the hospitals, several will die, while others will be crippled or maimed for life. It is quite a coincidence that "The Dangers of a Great City" was being played, and that "Under The Dome" was the next attraction, and superstitious persons will note that the accident occurred on Friday.

NOTICE TO TAX-PAYERS.

Tax receipts for 1897 are now ready and have been for some time. Please call and settle at once and save penalty.

FALL SUITINGS AND OVERCOATINGS FOR $5 LESS

Now than after September 18th. So come and avail yourself of this opportunity. Any one who will place their order between now and September 18th can save at least $5. We want early Fall business. We will make things lively this Fall if first-class goods, high-class tailoring and low prices will do it. Remember our motto: We keep faith with the public by doing as we advertise.

FINEST BUSINESS SUITS

In the world from

$25 TO $30

Our fall stock of suitings has been arriving daily. We have always undersold other tailors from $10 to $15 dollars on a suit. Other tailors will add $5 more to the cost of theirs on account of the tariff. We will not. Therefore, our prices will be from $15 to $20 less than elsewhere.

All work done at home.
